PRAGUE, Sept. 27.—David faced Gollath today, with no fear. Czechoslovakia will not surrender to Hitler.

Conscious that she has yielded and is ready still to yield everything for peace except her national existence, she is willing if necessary to become another Serbia.

But she feels that if this grim fate is hers, she will still come out of the purgatory a nation.

That is the national reaction today in this nation in arms, which gripped its weapons tighter after hearing Chancellor Hitler curse its beloved President. Educated Benes, revile the Czech people, declare their state a criminal monstrosity and swear that 75,000,000 Germans four days from now would bring to bear the might of the greatest single military machine in Europe to destroy them.

For to Czech could read any other meaning out of Hitler's declaration. He declared they were created only to threaten the national life of Germany, but said he did not want them in Germany and concluded that the Czechoslovakian problem now—once and for all.

Mary Spear, Aged About 70 Years, Victim Of Shotgun Attack

POLICE SEEKING
MAN AS SLAYERShooting Occurs In Hallway
On Second Floor Of Building

Mary Spear, aged about 70 years, was shot to death at 1:30 a. m. today in the hallway, second floor, 36½ South Jefferson street. Police are searching for "Myrt" Cox, 41, also of 36½ South Jefferson street. Police allege he discharged a shot from a 12-gauge shotgun into her right lung. The body has not yet been found. Her shot was in a local morgue. Among those held pending investigation of the case is Maud Hicks, same address.

First Report Of Shooting
Police received their first news of the shooting from an associate of the Post Office. Lunch, where Maud Hicks went after the shooting. Officers Gail, Nelson and Williams went to 36½ South Jefferson street and found the body of the woman. The shot had penetrated her right lung. The shotgun, police report, was apparently held close against her body.

The officers summoned Coroner Charles P. Byers, who had the body removed to a morgue, and the officers then took into custody Maud Hicks. They claim she was intoxicated and in a hysterical condition. According to police reports, other roomers in the house claim they heard her exclaim: "Don't shoot." Police say they presume she was addressing Cox.

Officers report they saw Norman S. Ray, 30½ South Jefferson street, standing near a parking meter at 36½ South Jefferson street. When quizzed by police he said he was waiting for a man who had entered 36½ South Jefferson street, but who was not returned. Ray, like Maud Hicks, was held temporarily as a material witness.

Asks Police Be Called
Robert Shook, 125 Center street, told police he was in the Post Office Lunch when Maud Hicks entered and requested an attaché. Shook said Maud Hicks mumbled that she, Maud Hicks, "had been" (Continued On Page Two)

BOSTON, Sept. 27.—Rebuild—Money no object.

Backed by the richest nation in the world, New England got the go ahead signal today. Full steam cost was ordered on rehabilitation. Cost was unimportant. The one thing to be done was to salvage New England from the wreckage of last week's hurricane, tidal wave and floods.

Rotary Votes To Sponsor
New Historical Society
Proposed In Talk By Young

New Castle's Rotary club voted Monday to sponsor the formation of a permanent Lawrence County Historical society and moved, immediately after the vote had been taken, to speed preliminary organization efforts.

Formal action to promote such a vital community project, one which will bring about the proper preservation of the county's rich history of eminent personalities, institutions and events, came after Attorney Charles H. "Throughout our county today could be found, no doubt, many valuable manuscripts," Young told the club. "They are of a great historical value and they should be preserved. But there now exists no authorized group which can gather them. A

This self-explanatory map charts the comparative man-power and air strength of the European nations which will most likely be drawn into war if the Czech-Nazi negotiations break down. WILL TAKE CARE OF EVACUATION

(International News Service)

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 27.—Under secret orders three United States navy vessels steamed out to sea from the Philadelphia navy yard today amid reports they were headed for European shores to stand by in the current war crisis.

The ships were the cruisers Philadelphia, newly commissioned flagship of the Atlantic squadron, and Savannah and the battleship Texas. The Philadelphia was originally scheduled to join the squadron for maneuvers near Cuba.

Some observers expressed belief the warships had orders to standby in European ports to aid in evacuation of American citizens in event of war. It was pointed out that all three were subject to direct orders from Washington while at sea.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 27.—Adolf Hitler's reply to President Roosevelt's appeal to maintain the peace of Europe was received in Washington today and generally considered to be evasive and disappointing.

American Nation Being Girded To Stand Shock If War Comes

PRESIDENT STILL HOPEFUL OF PEACE

WASHINGTON, Sept. 27.—President Roosevelt, still faintly hopeful that some miracle may yet spare the world a new European war of catastrophic proportions, today grappled the American nation with the stark reality of the shock of that conflict, if it comes.

Realistically, but with sadness in his heart, the president set about this task as hourly developments in Europe's capitals thickened, rather than dispelled, the murky clouds of war.

To the White House today, Mr. Roosevelt summoned his official family for an emergency cabinet meeting to formulate the course this nation will pursue in the event of Hitler's demands for dismemberment of Czechoslovakia plunges the old world into another general conflict.

Meeting Moved Ahead
The cabinet meeting was peremptorily moved forward three days from its normal Friday afternoon schedule as the Nazi fuehrer hurled his ultimatum at the Czech nation in Berlin last night.

General lines charting the national policy were set.

London, Sept. 27.—Belief that Nazi Germany will not march into the Sudetenland on Saturday as threatened grew in England today as numerous straws in the wind pointed more heartily toward a peaceful solution.

Berlin, Sept. 27.—A door seemingly closed to peaceful settlement of the Sudeten problem was opened cautiously by Reichsfuehrer Adolf Hitler today although at the same time he flatly renounced all responsibility for future war in Europe.

A glimmering of hope was seen in the fuehrer's reply to Prime Minister Neville Chamberlain's offer to guarantee peaceful cession of the Sudetenland to Germany. Well-informed circles believed Hitler would accept such a guarantee if Chamberlain can promise publicly that the wheels are set in motion by Oct. 1.

Coincident with this development which served to revive hopes for a peaceful solution, the fuehrer replied to President Roosevelt's peace appeal by disclaiming war responsibility.

Some of the motorists who park their cars south of the Greer building on Synamore street, seem to think pedestrians are bean stalks and can get through a six or eight inch space. The attention of police is called to the way they take the sidewalk.

The street department has again leveled off Logan street, between Wallace and Moody avenues. This street simply won't stay put, and ought to be included in a paving program.

SENATOR ASSAILS CHARLES MARGIOTTI

(International News Service)
HARRISBURG, Sept. 27.—Uncertainty over the fate of its grand jury bills before the state supreme court and faced by recalcitrant witnesses before its house investigating committee, the legislature today decided to continue in session for another week and perhaps longer before recessing.

Legislative leaders revealed that although the desire for a recess, until at least after the election, was strong it was not considered good strategy to recess until after the supreme court had handed down its decision and not until the house investigating committee was sure certain witnesses would not refuse to testify. Among them are former Attorney General Charles J. Margiotti, who threatened Saturday to walk out on the committee. Meanwhile, there was no indication when the supreme court, now meeting at Pittsburgh, would hand down its decisions.

To Reconvene Late Today

The house graft investigation prepared to reconvene late this afternoon with Margiotti again expected to be on the stand. Another witness this week was expected to be former state superintendent of police Maj. Lynn G. Adams, who will be asked to tell what he knows of the so-called Erie gravel scandal.

Margiotti was attacked on the floor of the senate last night by Sen. Anthony J. Dislivestro, Philadelphia Democrat, who termed him a "knave and political adventurer."

Senator Dislivestro was named by Margiotti as the informant who told him that Matthew K. McCloskey, wealthy contractor and Democratic leader, passed out $100,000 bills to "deserving" senators at a Democratic picnic. This Dislivestro has denied.

ROTARY TO SPONSOR NEW SOCIETY

historical society is the proper organization to do this, and I believe Rotary should sponsor such a group.

The Rotarians listened closely as Young spoke of outstanding early-day historical events which occurred in Lawrence county and which, perhaps, may have altered the course of history.

Young suggested that Rotary invite other Rotary clubs of the county and other civic clubs of New Castle to join them in the task.

The idea took quickly with the members and within a few minutes after Young finished speaking the club adopted a resolution to back the project.

Name Seven To Act
Carrying out another motion from the floor, Dr. C. C. Green, president of the club, named a committee of seven Rotarians to assume immediate charge and to co-operate with the community service committee group in advancing the work.

The committee of seven named included Attorney Young, chairman; Frank L. Orth, Charles H. Johnson, George W. Muse, Dr. W. Fulton Jackson, Judge W. Walter Braham and Rev. Fr. Joseph A. Doeri. They will work with Ross D. Rosenberger, chairman of the club's community service group.

Club Anniversary Nears

New Castle Rotary will observe the 25th anniversary of its founding on November 21 and President Green yesterday named 10 members to serve as the anniversary's general committee.

Appointed to arrange an appropriate celebration of the event were Mr. Rosenberger, the chairman; S. H. Rhoades, J. L. Matthews, William M. Clark, Albert B. Street, E. J. King, William J. Caldwell, Richard E. Rentz, Forbes W. Burdette and Marshall G. Matheny.

Early in the meeting, the members sang "When You and I Were Young, Maggie," just for Rotarian E. E. Seavy, for tonight, at the New Castle Field club, Mr. and Mrs. Seavy are celebrating their 50th wedding anniversary.

Attending yesterday as visiting Rotarians were O. E. Decker, of Youngstown, and Alex. William, Ardmore, Pa.

At the close of the noon program, the clubmen went to the Field club for an afternoon of golf and an evening dinner.

infer that when the German army strikes, it will set no less a goal than the extinction of Czechoslovakia.

Hitler errs in setting a ratio of ten to one in his favor. Foreign military experts estimate that the Czechoslovak soldiers now mobilized stand at a ratio of not worse than one to three.

The Germans at this moment probably have got a maximum of 2,500,000 men. When Germany mobilizes fully she may put another million into the field at once. But against her, unless all signs fail, will be a mobilized 2,000,000 Frenchmen, with 4,000,000 more trained French reserves in the background, and all the vast, irresistible power of the Soviet Red army.

In addition Britain's navy may once more set in action the weapon that eventually brought Imperial Germany to her knees in the World War—the blockade.

Czechoslovakia listened to Hitler's speech in complete darkness. Prague was "blacked out." The nation was compelled to take into account the possibility of a knock-out air attack even while Hitler spoke.

Voice Tremulous
But words that the night were the blacker than the night were a strained voice which, many observed, was for the first time in Hitler's career tremulous, and in his tone belied the firmness of his threat to plunge himself, his nation and all Europe into a war which every thinking man on this continent is convinced would mean the end of Hitler, the end of the Nazi party, the end of Germany.

This frightful future seemed to many here to have shaken the nerve of the man who has already created a greater German empire than ever existed before without firing a shot, and now without fighting has been offered all he ever claimed he wanted.

The most fateful step, it was realized here, was finding the ultimatum for October 1, for now Hitler has out behind him the bridge of possible retreat.

Hitler Worried?
Prague, Sept. 27.—News of the Franco-British-Russian threat of war against Germany if Czechoslovakia is invaded out through the muck of impending catastrophe like a flash of sunshine on its belated receipt here today.

But the relief was short-lived, for few here can visualize how Reichsfuehrer Adolf Hitler can now back down.

The opinion of all is that he is now properly frightened, however, as the allied warning makes clear to him for the first time he is confronted by an overwhelmingly superior force.

put into effect in Czechoslovakia the principles of self-determination of peoples enunciated by the late Woodrow Wilson.

After recalling the circumstances which surrounded receipt of the president's cablegram, Hitler said: "You may be convinced that I know how to appreciate the honorable intentions behind your statement."

"I share fully your opinion about the unforeseeable consequences of a European war. For this very reason, however, I can and must decline any responsibility on the part of the German people and their leaders in the event of a further development leading to an outbreak of hostilities contrary to all my efforts up to date."

"In order to form an impartial judgment of the Sudeten German problem, it is absolutely necessary to remember the events which engendered the problem and made it dangerous."

Cites Wilson's Ideals
"In the year 1918, the German people laid down their arms with the firm conviction that a peace settlement with their enemies at that time would see the principles and ideals which had been solemnly announced by President Wilson would be accepted as binding by all belligerent powers and solemnly realized."

"Never in history has the confidence of the people been so shamefully deceived as happened at the time. For the peace conditions forced upon a conquered nation under the Paris treaties were fulfilled, but nothing of their promises were given."

"Rather they created in Europe a political regime which made conquered nations into marionettes of the world, deprived of their rights, and this must have been recognized as untenable by every clear-thinking person from the very beginning."

Hitler then went on to state that delimitation of the original Czechoslovak frontiers "showed no respect for history and nationality, particularly the Sudeten section."

good to him," meaning Cox, police report. He told where Maud Hicks was and she was taken into custody. Harold Leasure, who lives in the building, was awakened from his sleep. He declared he heard a shot and heard Maud Hicks pleading, apparently with Cox. He reported his voice was excited and she said: "I always loved you." He heard a commotion. Leasure said. He did not go to the hallway until police arrived. The Spear woman was dead on the floor.

Police combed the place for evidence. Officer Golis found a shotgun shell in the hallway. Up to this time it was believed the woman had been killed by a revolver shot because of the small hole. Officers searched for the shotgun but failed to find it. Apparently the killer had carried it away and either hid it or yet has it.

—BUY IN NEW CASTLE—

Borrowed Gun
Chief of Detectives Ray Showalter and Officer D. J. Thomas at a. m. found that Cox had borrowed a shotgun from M. M. Powell, 1007 North Jefferson street, at 11 p. m. Cox told Powell he wanted the gun to "defend someone."

Cox came here about three years ago, it was learned. Recently he has been employed on a WPA job. Not long ago he was arrested by Detective John Young and Officer Golis on complaint of Mary Spear, that he had threatened her, police claim. At that time he was turned over to the custody of Algonquin W. E. Ewing for assault and battery and disorderly conduct and was discharged.

The dead woman, excepting for a few years spent in Youngstown, has resided here all her life. She was a seamstress by vocation. She has always borne a good reputation.

According to reports, Cox came here three years ago from Georgia. Maud Hicks came here 18 months ago from Johnson City, Tenn. She is not divorced from her husband, who is somewhere in the south, she said.

The Hicks woman will be questioned further today. When taken to police headquarters she showed the effects of drink, police report. She refused to admit when quizzed immediately after the murder that she had witnessed the shooting.

Cox Not Taken
Lieutenant of Police George Kennedy was off duty owing to illness. Sergeant Grover Syling, in charge of the department and in the investigation, into the murder of Mary Spear as soon as he received the alarm. The suspect, "Maud" Cox is yet at large. It is believed that the shotgun may have been thrown away, possibly in the Shenango river.

It was said by Chief of Detectives Ray Showalter that when Cox borrowed the shotgun he also borrowed five shells. Showalter explained also that Cox had said he had been married, after they went to bed.

Description Of Suspect
A description of the suspect is as follows: Age 41; height, 5 feet 10 inches; weight, 170 pounds; complexion, fair; hair, brown and thin. Accents of speech, southern.

Chief of Police Ralph A. Criswell said this morning that since coming here Cox has been something of a mystery.

The police this morning were searching for a motive and Chief of Detectives Showalter was working out a possible reason as to why the Spear woman was shot.

If he can establish a possible motive it may be possible to develop other angles, such as to whether or not anyone actually witnessed the murder.

Some police believe that Cox may have been involved in an argument with the Hicks woman and that Miss Spear, who lives on the same floor, went to her aid.

It may be that Cox was bitter because Mary Spear swore to an information against him some time ago and that he was fined when he appeared and pleaded guilty before Alderman Ewing to the charges.

State Motor police were apprised of the murder this morning. They have been provided with a description of Cox. They patrol the highways in automobiles and are keeping a vigil for him if he should attempt to escape by hitch-hiking. If he has not already done so.

"WIVES UNDER

IS VIVID DRAMA OF
JEALOUS LOVE

Warren William and Gail Patrick Cast in Powerful Drama!

Tearing at the heart strings as it unveils the poignant emotions released when jealousy first drives a man mad, then causes him to kill the being he loves best, Universal's powerful romantic drama "Wives Under Suspicion" opened last night at the Regent Theatre, and it will be shown again today and Wednesday.

Directed by James Whale, one of the masters of cinema production, this picture carries breathless suspense in nearly every scene. It tells the story of a district attorney played by Warren William who is determined to obtain convictions at any price. Although he does not realize it, he is rapidly becoming demoralized, to the extent that the wife he worships, portrayed by Gail Patrick, is finally forced to regard him as an unfeeling legal monster.

ability and insisting upon the principle of self-determination. Simultaneously, there was a more sinister development when Hitler called a council of war at the chancellery.

Reply Given Chamberlain
The Fuehrer's reply to Chamberlain's appeal was handed to Sir Horace Wilson of the British foreign office, who unexpectedly remained in Berlin overnight and saw Hitler for half an hour before flying back to London this afternoon.

Quarters usually well-informed about Hitler's plans went so far as to say that the reply "gives new hope for a peaceful solution."

These circles declared that if Chamberlain is publicly willing to assume full guarantees that the Sudetenland is returned without delay, and if he takes on responsibility for holding President Eduard Benes to such a commitment within a fixed time limit, such a procedure would undoubtedly be agreeable to the Fuehrer.

The pointed suggestion was voiced, however, that Chamberlain publicly voice his guarantees before the British parliament assemblies in special session tomorrow.

Editor's Note: Chamberlain is scheduled to make a broadcast to the British empire at 8 o'clock tonight, (2 p. m. E. S. T.).

It was restated, however, that regardless of what methods Chamberlain and Premier Edouard Daladier of France pursue later, Hitler is determined that "something definite" must transpire by October 1, the time limit set by the Fuehrer in his initial conference with the British prime minister at Berchtesgaden.

Campaign Plans Are Mapped Out

Both Democratic And Republican Leaders Busy Laying Out Big Programs

(International News Service)
WASHINGTON, Sept. 27.—Heralding the most spirited battle to control congress since the advent of the New Deal, rival Democratic and Republican congressional campaign leaders Monday planned to swing forces into action next week.

While the national committees of both major parties carry on an unceasing campaign, the special senatorial and congressional committees are just completing their campaign plans.

Thirty-four senatorial seats, only three of them Republican, and the entire house of 435 members, are at stake in the November 8 election.

Republican leaders, more confident than they have been for years, have disclosed plans for vigorous battles in all states outside the deep south.

Plan Conferences.
Senator Prentiss Brown of Michigan, chairman of the Democratic senatorial campaign committee, is slated to reach Washington early next week for campaign conferences. Senator John G. Townsend of Delaware, Republican chairman, is maintaining daily contact with his headquarters.

The Republican congressional committee, under leadership of Rep. Joe Martin of Massachusetts, and the Democratic committee, headed by Rep. Pat Drewry of Virginia, are expanding their staffs.

The final list of candidates will be completed when New York convention select candidates for senatorial seats.

The term of Senator Wagner expires and a second candidate is made necessary by the death of Senator Copeland.

natures to what is probably one of the most unusual instruments of its kind ever filed in Lawrence or any other county. A certain woman died and left five children, orphans. Her brother-in-law and sister, through Attorney J. Elder Bryan presented a petition for adoption of the children. It was presented first to Judge W. Walter Braham who made the preliminary order and assigned the case to Judge Dickey for a hearing. After hearing the evidence, Judge Dickey signed the final decree. There are frequent cases of the adoption of one child but when it comes to five it shows a big heartedness that few couples care to undertake.

Seventy-one instruments of all kinds were entered at the register and recorder's office last week. Of this number twenty-eight were deeds and twenty-six mortgages. Of the mortgages fourteen, totaling $37,800, were given to building and loan associations in New Castle, Ellwood City and New Brighton. Six, totaling $7,400 were given to banks and six totaling $8,600 were given to private individuals.

(International News Service)

TOLEDO, O., Sept. 27.—The well-dressed dog must wear a tag of immunization when he appears on the streets, or else, the City Health Department has decreed.

All of which has provoked a considerable protest among dog lovers. Among those protesting the order is Charles W. Quetschke, a leading dog expert who presented the "Air-dale, 'Laddie Boy,' to President Harding.

Dr. Millard C. Hanson, city health director, ordered the compulsory vaccination following reports that several persons had been bitten by rabid dogs. In pursuance of the other, two trucks rented by the department are running down all dogs not duly decorated for immunization.

The Human Side Of The News
By EDWIN C. HILL
The exit gate is ajar, Maxwell Anderson's "Both Your Houses," for instance. Either a Democratic or Republican Fuchrer of a later day might call out the gendarmes if anybody tries to revive that one. And then there is all this roveling and ribbing by the raffish Kaufmann and Connolly in "Let Freedom Ring," and there is carousing, but doubtless wholesome, satire in such plays as "Once in a Lifetime." Entering the field of social and political reality, our stage has turned to satire, rather than to the powerful fulminations of Ibsen or the pious preachments of Brieux. It is decidedly in our national "karma," and probably all to the good.
I have not wished to suggest that our theater has been confined to police banquets. It has had and still has both vitality and originality. We have evolved highly interesting forms of poetic and episodic drama, and in the pugnantly moving play "Our Town" we break the chains of all that is stale, derived and platitudinous in our drama. And, in no Pharisaical spirit we may thank whatever gods there be that we still may take a critical look at our past, present or future and revive or anticipate anything we want to.

SEATTLE, Wash.—Silver dollars may be slipping in popularity, but women still prefer the "cartwheels" to currency, according to John Bain, Seattle bank cashier. "Most women are strong for silver dollars," said Bain. "They think they open their purses to make purchases. It's easier to pick up a silver dollar than separate paper money with gloves on."

Dr. H. A. McCurdy Heading Clergy

Epworth Pastor Is New President Of Local Ministerial Association

NEW MEMBERS AT MEETING MONDAY

Rev. Harold A. McCurdy, D. D., pastor of the Epworth M. E. church, is the new president of the New Castle Ministerial Association, succeeding Dr. J. J. McVane.

The election of officers took place in the First Presbyterian church on Jefferson street Monday where the Ministerial Association members, twenty-six in number, assembled for their first fall meeting.

Rev. Chester T. R. Yeates, pastor of the Third U. P. church, was elected vice president. Rev. R. B. Withers continues as secretary and treasurer.

New members in the persons of Rev. C. G. Shindler of the Wesley-King's Chapel M. E. churches, Francesco P. Sulmonetti, of the Hillside-New Castle Italian M. E. churches, U. S. Munterly, of the Second Baptist church, and W. C. Cleaver of St. Luke's A. M. E. Zion church, were present.

The summer community services committee made a full report of the services held and reported offerings sufficient to pay the necessary expenses with a balance left over.

The association will meet every second Monday during the coming season. The community activities for the near future were announced. The program and activities committees will be appointed soon and plans for the season announced.

GOVERNMENT MOVES TO AVERT BIG RAIL STRIKE

out, with deadlines six hours apart, were issued by union chiefs last night after tabulation of the nationwide ballot among the railway employees.

Eighteen brotherhoods, including the big operating unions filed 6 p. m. next Friday as the zero hour, while the brotherhood of railroad trainmen, acting independently, set 12:01 a. m. Saturday.

Railway executives had previously announced the 15 per cent pay slash would go into effect October 1.

action there will be forestalled also until President Roosevelt appoints a board to inquire into the entire controversy. That board will probably be named today or tomorrow. The board must render a decision within 30 days. Then the president will have 30 days in which to study the board's recommendations and to make a formal public announcement.

Under this procedure, no actual strike can take place before December 1.

In announcing that a strike had been decided upon, George M. Harrison, chairman of the committee of the cooperating labor organizations, declared:

"For railroad workers to consent to the proposed wage cut would be not only a gross injustice to themselves but also wrong to the social and economic life of the country."

"A cut of railroad workers wages would be the signal for wage cuts in other industries and would strike at the foundation of our modern economic and industrial structure. It would stop national recovery and prosperity. It could easily lead to another business nose dive. This would injure the railroad industry more than a wage-cut could possibly help it."

The railroads have contended that the wage reduction is necessary in order to prevent complete financial chaos among the carriers. It has been estimated that the roads would effect a $250,000,000 saving if the pay cut was made.

Duke Of Windsor Will Have Place On British Staff

Duke To Return To London
At Once In Event
Of War

By JOSEPH THOMAS International News Service Staff Correspondent (Copyright, 1938.)

LONDON, Sept. 27.—Old enmities forgotten and disagreements of the past buried in a national emergency, the British government has already made a place for the Duke of Windsor on its general staff in the event that war breaks out, International News Service learned today.

As a result of discussions between King George and his cabinet ministers, it has been decided that should hostilities occur, the Duke is to return to London from France immediately.

The assumption is that he will naturally be accompanied by his American-born wife who then would take her place with the other royal duchesses as spiritual leaders of England's "supreme sacrifice" for restoration of peace.

Resignation Of
Mrs. David Kay

Has Been In Charge Of Home
Hygiene For The American Red Cross

Mrs. David Kay, Chairman of Home Hygiene and Care of the Sick program of the Lawrence County Chapter of the American Red Cross has tendered her resignation and it is being accepted with a great deal of regret on the part of not only the Executive Secretary but the entire Board.

Mrs. Kay has served in this capacity for a number of years and has given of herself to the Chapter with the result that a very fine program of Home Hygiene and Care of the Sick has been built up. Mrs. Kay's resignation was only accepted after she had offered to serve in an ex-officio way and to also assist the Chapter in its coming Roll Call and give other services to the Chapter as was necessary.

It was because of the feeling that her experiences with the work were invaluable that her resignation was accepted with these provisions. Mrs. Kay stated that her resignation was due to the fact that the work in the Chapter had grown to such an extent that it was taking too much of her leisure time and her family as well as her other activities required her attention. A successor to Mrs. Kay has not been as yet named but it is the hope of the board to be able to in a way replace this valued member.

PROF. McKEE IS EVENING SPEAKER

Junior Chamber Hears Westminster Man Review Business Conditions

Members of the Junior Chamber of Commerce last night heard Prof. C. William McKee, head of the department of economics and business administration of Westminster College, list 15 ways in which government prolonged the 1936-37 business revival and perhaps developed a "period of real prosperity."

The Westminster faculty member spoke in The Castleton on the subject, "An Analysis and an Appraisal of Business Conditions Through 1936 and 1937."

He was introduced to the audience of nearly 50 by Howard M. Wylie, chairman of the organization's program committee.

Prof. McKee posed significant questions relative to the 1936-37 business situation, and then proceeded to answer them. The address was most enlightening.

He told his audience:

"Just as I think the depression of 1937-38 could have been greatly reduced, if not completely avoided, by the adoption of the business and economic policies I have mentioned, so do I think that it was even more necessary and evident that they should have been inaugurated as the recession became more pronounced."

The junior chamber will take over the speakers' bureau job of the Community Chest for the 1938 campaign, opening October 24. The organization will assign speakers to visit clubs and granges.

W. O. Mooney was named the new chairman of the transportation committee of the junior chamber last night.

President Presley N. Jones presided.

Tuberculin Tests For High School Students Wins Approval Of Society

DISCUSS PLANS FOR SEAL SALE

Meeting in the society's rooms in the Lawrence Savings and Trust company building last evening, members of the Lawrence County Tuberculosis society, discussed plans for the annual seal sale which will be conducted during the month prior to Christmas, and other matters of moment.

The board expressed gratification over the recent action of the school board in authorizing tuberculin tests for pupils of the Senior high school, and will offer their full cooperation in this work.

These tests will be conducted some time immediately after the first of the year, when Dr. D. H. Eckles, school medical inspector, will be assisted by Dr. Samuel Pruitt, medical secretary of the Pennsylvania Tuberculosis society, and the local society nurse.

It is the aim of the Lawrence county society to carry out a three-year program which will result in tests for tuberculosis for every school child, with X-Ray examinations for each child who shows a positive reaction in the preliminary test.

Members of the board who were present at last evening's meeting, were: Jack Houston, Dr. David L. Perry, Dr. William J. Hinkson, Dr. R. J. Riddle, Carl Miner, Mrs. Ross D. Rosenberger and Attorney F. A. Hoyer.

Test Right Of State To Exact Pension Payment

Ohio's Old Age Assistance Law Will Undergo Test In Courts Of State

(International News Service)
XENIA, O., Sept. 27.—Ohio's old age assistance law is going to be tested to determine whether the state can claim what it paid as pension to recipients from estates after they die.

William S. Rogers, administrator for the estate of Mrs. Sadie A. Perry Harris, appealed after Probate Judge Homer H. Henrie ruled the state had a prior claim of $1,380 on Mrs. Harris' estate.

Judge Henrie ruled that the estate not only must repay what Mrs. Harris received in old age assistance, but also what her husband, George, obtained.

Rogers said he appealed because he believed "the amount given as aid to the aged should be considered as a gift from the people of Ohio, through taxes, and the state should not expect a return out of the estate of a deceased recipient unless the law has been violated in gaining such aid."

It is believed that this is the first time this phase of the law has been challenged.

ARMY MANEUVERS OF 1912 RECALLED BY BURIED SHELL

(International News Service)
GOVERNMENT CAMP, Ore. Sept. 27.—The discovery of a two-pound artillery shell, a dud, buried in the side of remote Tom Dick and Harry Mountain caused considerable discussion in Government Camp today.

The discovery was made by a berry picker, James Coffee, who brought the shell to Government Camp to prove his story. Residents of this mountain settlement were unable to account for the shell until old-timers recalled that soldiers from Vancouver Barracks, Washington, trained in the Mount Hood area more than a quarter of a century ago.

At that time—1912—the army used "pack guns" which were mounted on mules according to military observers. It was thought the shell possibly was fired at the mountain side during the army's maneuvers long ago.

JAIL STOWAWAYS WHO JUST WANTED TO 'SEE FRANCE'

(International News Service)
PARIS, Sept. 27.—Two American high school boys, Ralph Brown, of Buffalo, and Chester Deuel, of New York, were sentenced to 60 days imprisonment for stowing away on the "Normandie."

The two young stowaways who claimed that they "just wanted to see France" and meant no harm, very nearly succeeded in carrying through their plan. Their hiding place on board was discovered shortly before the end of the voyage, and they were arrested on the day when they had hoped to start their hiking through France.

The Captain of the "Normandie" however, turned them over to the port authorities and after serving their sentence they will be returned to the United States.

Dr. Roy E. Manne Creates Sensation

Former New Castle Man Urges Defeat Of Gov. Earle From His Pulpit

Dr. Roy E. Manne, a graduate of New Castle High school many years ago, and well known in this city, who is now pastor of the Bellevue M. E. church near Pittsburgh, made the headlines when on Sunday from his pulpit he discussed Governor George H. Earle and asked for his defeat at the polls on November 8.

Said Dr. Manne, "The stand I am about to take is against no party, but against certain men in a party. I refer particularly to Gov. Earle."

"I am against that gentleman 100 per cent, because with the aid of the so-called Democratic majority in the state legislature, he has put through a program which places state officers above the grand jury investigation or, if subjected to it, such difficulties have been placed in the way as to render the investigation futile."

"He has done this to save himself and 13 of his official family and friends from charges of graft and corruption which have been laid by a member of his own administration."

Then Dr. Manne attacked Earle's motives in blocking the grand jury probe in favor of a legislation committee investigation. He said:

"If light is what Governor Earle desires, why the shameless spectacle of an Earle-dominated legislative committee that is not an investigating committee but a whitewashing party?"

"I appeal to you, not as a Republican—for I am no more Republican than Democrat—but because I am a Christian minister, to use your influence against the election of Governor Earle to the United States Senate, and those of the legislature who by their vote have supported him in his nefarious program to snuff out the light of truth and shackle the hands of justice."

Minimum Prices Set For Declines

Decision Made With Regard To Gilt-Edged Securities On London Market

For example, the war loan will be fixed at 93 for buyers and 94 for sellers. These prices represent approximately a seven-point drop as compared to two weeks ago.

Meanwhile, there were hectic dealings in dollars on the foreign exchange market. Shortly before noon the rate was about $4.74 to the pound sterling.

Gold valued at 2,331,000 pounds sterling was sold at 145 shillings six pence per ounce, a decrease of one penny.

CAMPTON, N. H., Sept. 27.—Just call me "Ashcan."

So says Mrs. Sarah "Ashcan" Cheney, one of the most widely known and popular clubwomen in New Hampshire.

Mrs. "Ashcan" as she popularly called herself received her unusual nickname from her campaign against the littering of parks by picnic parties.

"A picnic place and a trash barrel in every community" was her slogan.

The 66-year old wife of Dr. Harry Cheney started her campaign to clean up the parks several years ago, she sprang the gospel of cleanliness so much that some began calling her "that ashcan woman."

Radiators Win From Amodies, Are 1938 Champs

For Fifth Year Radiators Take City Softball Title, Crisci Presents Trophy

PASCARELLA HAS BEST OF BISHARA

The National Radiators for the fifth time in recent years won the City Softball league title last night and received the Perelman Trophy cup from Franklin R. Crisci, president of the league at the Cedar Street Field last night, as they defeated the Amodies 5 to 1 with Bob Pascarella doing the pitching.

Pascarella pitched his best game of the year as he set the hard slugging Amodies down with four measly hits. He was master of the Amodies in every inning. The best batters in the game were Nickie Ross, Cooper, Frankie Copple, Stone and DeCaprio.

Bishara Rumped The new champs got to Bishara for 10 hits. He fanned five batters. Pascarella had three strikeouts to his credit.

It was the seventh time in two years that the Radiators have defeated "Cannonball" Bishara. The Radiators won 60 games, this year and lost 13. The Amodies won 53 and lost 15. Eddie Hilton, Nickie Ross and El Lockley have played on eight championship teams, three with the Lockleys and five with the Radiators. This is a very fine record.

The Amodies under Italo Amodie won the first-half of the league season and the Radiators won the second-half. Both teams were loud in their praise of the manner in which the league was conducted this year by Franklin R. Crisci, who has just completed his second year as secretary here and has done a swell job.

Manager Duende Ambrosia was being congratulated today on all sides for bringing his 1938 team through to the championship. The Radiators are one of the finest in the parts.

Pirates-Cubs Battle Today, Flag At Stake

Pirates Must Defeat Cubs In Three-Game Series To Have Pennant Chance

LEAD CUT AS CUBS TAKE WIN

By CHESTER YOULL International News Service Sports Writer

CHICAGO, Sept. 27.—With the National League pennant at stake, Manager Gabby Hartnett led his red-hot Chicago Cubs today against the league leading Pittsburgh Pirates in the first of a three-game series.

Hartnett pulled Dizzy Dean out of the jobbox where he has been since August 20 except for brief spells and gave him the hurling assignment. Manager Pie Traynor picked his ace Jim Tobin to stop the pull-moll rush of the Cubs and crowd of 40,000 was expected to see the duel.

Lee James Cards The 21st pitching victory of the year yesterday by big Bill Lee edged the Cubs up to just one and one-half games behind the Bucs, and a sweep of the current series would give Chicago something of a stranglehold on the flag.

That is something Hartnett does not dare to hope for. But it appears the only possible way the Cubs can win the flag. Otherwise their situation is hopeless.

For should the Cubs win only two out of three from the Bucs in order to finish on top they would have to win all their remaining three games with the Cardinals in St. Louis this week end if the Pirates could do no more than break even in their four-game series with the Cincinnati Reds.

In turning back the Cardinals, 6 to 3, yesterday, while the Pirates were idle, Lee kept the Cubs in the pennant race but lost his chance of establishing a National League new record for consecutive scoreless innings pitched.

Falls To Break Record Lee had tied the league record with four straight shutouts and had pitched 38 scoreless innings prior to the second inning in the Cardinal game when Doubles by Johnny Mize and Mickey Owen scored a run.

It was the Cubs seventh consecutive victory and their 17th win in their last 20 starts.

Hartnett declared he probably would start Clay Bryant in the second game and Lee in the third. This would force these hurlers to work with only two days rest, but each reported himself fit and ready.

In the only other major league game yesterday, the world's champion Yankees whipped the Boston Red Sox, 4 to 3, in New York. They scored their winning run in the sixth on Glenn's double by Pinky Higgins. Lefty Bob Grove, out for most of the season with an ailing arm, pitched the last couple of innings for the Red Sox and fairly breezed through them.

(International News Service)

The Pittsburgh Pirates and Chicago Cubs launch a three-game series today at the Windy City and when the smoke of battle has cleared the National League's pennant winner probably will have been decided. Trailng by a game and a half, the Cubs entrusted pitching duties in the initial game to Dizzy Dean, the high-priced right-hander whose sore arm has prevented him from being of much service this season.

Pie Traynor selected his ace, Jim Tobin, for mound duty. Billy Burke, Cleveland's National Open champion in 1931, with a 286 held a two-stroke advantage as the final round of the $13,500 golf tourney started at White Plains, N. Y., today.

John Henry Lewis has signed to defend his lightweight title on October 14 at New Haven, Conn., against Al Galant.

ANN ARBOR, Mich.—Barring mishaps during the week Michigan is expected to put a full strength squad on the field against Michigan State Saturday. Coach Fritz Crisler pointing for a victory in his first game stressed an aerial attack to meet the Wolverines' traditional rivals. A sell out of the 90,000 capacity stadium is expected.

NEW YORK—Columbia's gridgers intensified their practice sessions today for Saturday's game against Yale. Coach Lou Little is stressing defense.

ITHACA, N. Y.—Cornell's eleven neared completion of their practice program today in preparation for Colgate Saturday. Then went through their last daily double workout yesterday.

Rambling Around World Of Sports

Grid review . . . several former "Red Hurricane" pigskin stars saw action in some of the leading football tussles of the day. Saturday at Walt Raskowski, ranked with the greatest linemen of all time at New Castle high started at tackle as the Pittsburgh Golden Panthers topped a good West Virginia club . . . Raskowski, a converted tackle, shone at his new post . . . Charley Fleming, an end, was injected into the Pitt lineup . . . Walter Kominick lived up to advance hope as Akron won its opener . . . Frank "Tarzan" Crisci was up to his neck in Western Reserve's opener . . . At Akron, Ohio, Johnny Gabas, fleet footed quarterback, scampered 27 yards for the touchdown which gave Union a 7-0 triumph over Hiram . . . These are only a few of New Castle's contributions to the football world this season . . .

Record still clean . . . With the football season two weeks old, locally, Lawrence County teams still boast clean slates . . . New Castle kept its slate clean by bumping off a tough East club 3-7, Elwood City continued its steamrolling process by running up a 32-0 count against Wellsville, Bessemer shocked the entire grid populace of Ohio with an impressive 21-6 victory over Hubbard and Shenango high held a good Freedom club to a 0-0 deadlock . . .

Today's pigskin question . . . What is an unbalanced line? . . . An unbalanced line, or a "4-2" line, occurs when four linemen are on one side of the center and two on the other side . . . A "5-1" line works on the same principle . . .

A dash of this and that . . . Paul Waner has a favorite midnight snack called a "cannibal sandwich" . . . Jerome Dean has flatly refused to hurt against his brother Paul . . . But a lot of hotel managers have their fingers crossed in Pittsburgh . . . It would ruin what looks like a tremendous autumn business, should the Pirates pull a "Corrigan" . . .

Fair enough . . . Despite the fact that football's gaudy carnival started off with such surprising upsets as Ohio U. over Illinois, Clemson over Tulane, Mississippi over Louisiana State, St. Bonaventure over Manhattan not to mention a couple of others, we did "fair enough" in picking em . . .

Right, 16 Wrong, 5; Ties, 0; Pet. . . We'll be back with more Friday night, still sticking on that shaky limb . . .

Westminster Prepares For Opening Of Season

(Special To The News)

NEW WILMINGTON, Pa., Sept. 27.—When the Westminster Titans open their 1938 schedule against the Bethany Bisons on the Titan home-field Saturday, October 1, at two o'clock for the first time in years there will be two Titans fighting for each of the starting positions.

Reserves will not be a major problem this year to Coach Grover C. Washabaugh.

In the backfield, Washabaugh has two excellent fullbacks in Edg, hard-driving Irwin back; and Wright, Bellevue center, and honorary captain. At quarter, the Titans will depend on "Casper" Lapinski, New Brighton junior, an excellent blocker and runner, who has yet to be injured in two years of college football. At the wing positions, are four veterans and one freshman; Art Edwards, 185-pound Sharon high line-smasher; Valicenti, a flashy sophomore, broken-field runner, from Mt. Lebanon; Perry Black, Brentwood sophomore, who ran wild through the Allegheny team in the Titans season-end last year; 274-lb. speedy sophomore, and Shoup, junior triple-threat back from Bessemer.

At the end-positions, Coach Washabaugh will depend on four men, three freshmen and Mel Miller, New Brighton, who has played an excellent terminal game for the past two years on the line eleven. Freshmen aspirants for the end-positions are Merle Frisch, 165-pound Erie squadman, without high school experience; Fred Brinkley, 180-pound transfer from Drake; and Jim Wilson, McKeesport freshman, a six-foot two pass-receiver and excellent defensive player.

Two of last year's regulars, Dan Mamula, 200-pound Pittsburgher, and Harry DePaulis, 190-pound Altoona lineman, will probably start at the tackle posts. In this section, Coach Washabaugh will be hampered by reserves, with Lutton, New Yorker, the only experienced reserve.

Dale Youkers, Butler junior, and Bill Ruefle, Pittsburgh, also veterans of the 1937 squad, will probably be in the opening lineup at the guard-positions, with a possible third line, sophomore Kidnapping lineman, listed at the top of reserve material.

No problem, except surplus of material, exists at the Titan center post with two captains and excellent linemen, Bretholle, Carnegie; and Throup, Bessemer, fighting for the pivot-post. A third center is John Altman, 170-pound Tarentum guard, who has been understanding the center position.

Assistant coach Dick Kelleher will have the best line that Titan waters. They have seen in several years, in excellent condition through the consistent hardening process the Westminster squadmen have gone through under the training of assistant-coach Dave Boyd, in charge of calisthenics and conditioning.

Baer And Louis Return Battle Is Now Possible

May Meet On Coast During San Francisco Big World's Fair, Is Report

Wertz Loses To Kowalik

Rubin And Brooks Win By 'Kayo'; O'Brien By Technical 'Kayo'

JACK VIRGELLI DEFEATS MORGAN

RESULTS LAST NIGHT
Halbert Brooks, New Castle, knocked out George Tarr, Youngstown, second round; 147 pound class.
Charlie Arnett, West Pittsburg, won decision from Louis Danko, Youngstown, three rounds; 140 pound class.

Mickie Rubin, New Castle, knocked out George Segerman, Youngstown, first round; 175 pound class.

Muddy Kurtz, McKees Rocks, won decision from Mike Sandino, Youngstown, three rounds; 147 pound class.

Regis O'Brien, McKees Rocks, won technical knockout over Kid Howard, Midland, third round; 130 pound class.

Sully Tonti, Midland, won decision from Jimmie Dailey, Youngstown, three rounds; 165 pound class.

Jack Virgelli, Butler, won decision from Steve Morgan, Youngstown, three rounds; 160 pound class.

Steve Kowalik, McKees Rocks, won decision from Andy Wertz, Youngstown, three rounds; 147 pound class.

There have been amateur fights and there will be more such scraps here. However, it is doubtful if any of the coming embroilings will prove more pleasing to fandom than the eight staged by the Jefferson A. C. in The Arena last night.

There were two knockouts, one technical knockout and one knockdown. All the favorites came through. The "kayo" winners were Halbert Brooks and Mickie Rubin. Regis O'Brien took his scrap via a technical knockout and Steve Kowalik out-pointed Andy Wertz in three rounds.

Howard proved too aggressive and had too good a left hand for Wertz. Steve kept his left in Andy's face all night, although Wertz repeatedly stood up to the McKees Rocks slugger and exchanges blows to the midriff and head.

After being on the short side of the score sheet, Wertz became quite aggressive in the first part of the third round, but Kowalik soon evened the score with hard blows to the head and at one time staggered Wertz with a right to the chin.

Kowalik got the award.

The first bout between Halbert Brooks and George Tarr was a hurricane. They swung punches from all directions. It was anyone's fight until Halbert, boxing for the first time, felt Tarr who dropped face-down in the second round and was counted out by Referee McMahon.

Chuck Arnett and Louis Danko put on a sizzler. Arnett was wild with his left and while they exchanged punches every second, there was little to choose between them excepting that Arnett landed the most telling blows. Judge Bradbury decided in favor of Danko. Steinbrink in favor of Arnett and the referee gave the bout to Arnett.

Rubin Drops Segerman

Two heavy sockers met when George Segerman and Mickie Rubin answered the bell. Segerman dropped Rubin, who got up after a count and slugged with George. Getting the worst of right stance scrapping, Rubin turned southpaw and landed a left hook to the stomach that knocked out Segerman in the first round. It was an exciting fight while it lasted.

The battle between rope-grabbing Muddy Kurtz and Mike Sandino, who possessed a peculiar stance, was a sensation from first to last. Not because they knew so much about boxing, but because they kept swinging every second. They pulled a lot of stuff that kept the fans either cheering or rollicking with laughter.

Kurtz fought a typical Kurtz fight. He executed a lot of Elmo the Mighty's stuff while Sandino, a hard hitter, when his swings landed, occupied a side-wheel stance that kept Kurtz from doing much damage. At the end of the show Kurtz received the Fordman watch and Sandino was awarded the key-stone.

Judge Bradbury gave the bout to Sandino. Steinbrink to Kurtz and Referee McMahon's vote gave the battle to Kurtz.

Kid Howard, a tall, rangy, thin colored lad from Midland gave Regis O'Brien plenty of work in the first round. Regis was short and was out-reached but in the second he got to Howard and pounded his face and body. One of his punches inflicted a cut above Howard's mouth and it was deemed best to not allow him to continue in the third round, which gave Regis a technical kayo.

Virgelli Wins

For the first two rounds Jimmie Dailey put up a good scrap with Sully Tonti but condition told the story in the third when Tonti "leathered" the Youngstown boy, who was very tired. Tonti had the best of the exchanges and was awarded the decision.

Jack Virgelli of Butler and Steve Morgan of Youngstown, battled in the next to the last bout and it was a great scrap. It was the best fight so far as hard hitting was concerned. Virgelli knew too much for Morgan.

Virgelli either kept poking a straight left to the face or hooking his left to the stomach while Morgan depended upon a hard right head to fetch him victory. Virgelli outslugged and made Morgan miss in the first round and early part of the second round.

As the second round neared its end, Morgan landed a right to the head that staggered Virgelli, but he came back fighting hard. In the last round he outboxed Morgan. However, the fight was close. Judge Bradbury gave the fight to Morgan and Steinbrink awarded it to Virgelli, and with this Referee McMahon agreed and Virgelli got the decision.

A large crowd attended the scrap. There were many prominent people present. It was held in the city's new athletic auditorium and all were pleased with the setting as everything was spotlessly clean, the order excellent and everything operated systematically.

The show was supervised by Arch Cuno and B. J. Biondi, representatives of the State Athletic commission. Tom McMahon was the referee and Jack Bradbury and Jack Steinbrink judged the fights. Carl Ciabella kept time. Tommy Lench made the matches for the show last night and Charles "Bugs" Walters announced the events.

Next Monday night Frankie Moran and Smokey Robinson will fight again, which means there will be a crowded arena. Both are liked.

Market Stages
Quiet RecoveryResponds To Rumor Hitler
Ultimatum Will Be
ExtendedBy LESLIE GOULD
International News Service Financial Writer

NEW YORK, Sept. 27.—The stock market staged a quiet recovery today after some irregularity at the start, responding to an unconfirmed London report the Hitler ultimatum date would be extended by two weeks.

Leaders chalked up gains of a point or more in extremely slow dealings, although initial transactions found several representative issues behind minus signs. Motors, steels, chemicals, coppers and blue chips led the advance.

Considerable nervousness still was in evidence throughout the financial world, however, and most foreign markets and currencies suffered additional losses despite late recovery tendencies.

In London, minimum price levels were set up for government securities. The market there dropped sharply before the New York opening, but regained a good portion of its losses before the close. Amsterdam displayed independent strength, with domestic and American issues ruling appreciably higher.

Major European currencies continued to reflect the tense feeling in continental circles. The British pound, which tumbled to a new low since March, 1935, led the way downward.

Grains eased moderately on principal North American pits, but cotton and most minor staples registered some improvement on the day.

Bread was heretofore regarded as the staff of life. But in Prague, Czechoslovakia, it runs second to gas masks. Here you see a Czech housewife on her way home with her shopping bag. It contains two gas masks in their air-tight cylinders. (Central Press)

Benes' Brother in U. S.

Surrounded by reporters, Votja Benes, brother of President Edouard Benes, of Czechoslovakia, is pictured aboard the Gdynia-America liner Battery in New York harbor. The Battery was delayed by bad weather and Benes was unable to speak at the mass-meeting Czech sympathizers held in Madison Square Garden. Teacher Takes Case To Court At Pittsburgh

William Ganapowski Of Farrell, Dismissed, Enters Appeal In Highest Court

(International News Service)
PITTSBURGH, Sept. 27.—The State Supreme Court today was asked to decide whether or not a school board may dismiss an instructor of physical education upon his refusal to perform the duties of a basketball coach.
William Ganapowski today appealed from the order of the board of school directors of Farrell, Mercer county, which was upheld in the lower courts, terminating his contract with the board for refusing "to perform the duties of a basketball coach."
According to Ganapowski's attorney the contract with the school board was a teaching contract only and did not specify that Ganapowski was to coach basketball and football.
Ganapowski refused to continue his duties of a basketball coach after his dismissal as a football coach, it was stated in court, and it was because of this action and no other that the board had refused to renew his contract.

When New York Cheered for the Czechs

If there had been more room in Madison Square Garden during the rally held by Czech sympathizers, this huge mob would have been seated comfortably. But the streets outside the huge edifice, into which nearly 20,000 persons had been jammed, were filled from one side to the other with people who met every mention of Hitler's name with loud boos. Three hundred policemen found the crowd orderly and easy to handle. (Central Press)

Fezed Orientals To Hold Fall Ceremonial In The Cathedral

Thursday night, September 29 is Caliph's Night in New Castle. The Caliphs of Bygones hold their fall ceremonial in the Cathedral and after the meeting of Monday night, there seems to be no reason to believe that this one won't be tops.
At six forty-five the members with the funny fezzes will gather at the Cathedral. At seven o'clock they will move out in parade formation headed by the Scotch Kiltie Band. The parade route will be downtown and up Jefferson street to the Cathedral.

Eight o'clock is the zero hour for candidates. Those brethren who have been feeling their way in the dark for years will suddenly be led into the fields of light and in the leading there will be considerable activity.
At nine thirty a seven act vaudeville show will be presented and at 10:30 a Dutch lunch will be served in the dining room. Caliphs, Yellow Dogs, initiates, all of them will gather for a night of frolic and any Caliph's wife who hesitates to let her husband go on Thursday night will be barred from attending the Ladies' Night which will be held later.

CUO To Register Men By Abilities

Plan To Urge State WPA To Employ Men On Projects For Which They Are Fitted

In accordance with a plan adopted at the last meeting of the Committee on Unemployment Organization, members working on WPA projects will be registered according to their qualifications. The committee in charge of the plan states that many men are now working on projects which call for qualifications other than those which the men possess. It is the idea that men should work on projects for which they are qualified.
When the registrations have been completed they will be forwarded to the state WPA organization with the request that men be used in places for which they are best fitted.
Members desiring to co-operate in this matter are requested to attend the next regular meeting of the CUO in Clendenin Hall Wednesday, September 28, at 8 o'clock.
